

THE MINSTRELS' COURT & ST JOHN'S SUMMER FETE SATURDAY 26 JUNE 2010, 11-4.30

In medieval times, all musicians and entertainers wishing to perform in Cheshire had to attend St John's Church each Midsummer to get their licences.

This lively event is being recreated with performances of medieval music, dancing, mummers' plays and storytelling.

Come and meet a collection of medieval characters and even have the chance to join in the show.

There will also be various stalls, including home made cakes, strawberries and cream, games, raffles and much more.

ST JOHN'S CHURCH, NEXT TO THE AMPHITHEATRE

THE MINSTRELS' COURT & ST JOHN'S SUMMER FETE SATURDAY 26 JUNE 2010, 11-4.30

In medieval times, all musicians and entertainers wishing to perform in Cheshire had to attend St John's Church each Midsummer to get their licences.

This lively event is being recreated with performances of medieval music, dancing, mummers' plays and storytelling.

Come and meet a collection of medieval characters and even have the chance to join in the show.

There will also be various stalls, including home made cakes, strawberries and cream, games, raffles and much more.

ST JOHN'S CHURCH, NEXT TO THE AMPHITHEATRE